

Married to the Military: Soldiers' Families in the Ancient World & Beyond

The Open University in London (1-11 Hawley Crescent NW1 8NP)

11th–12th November 2016

FRIDAY 11TH NOVEMBER (REMEMBRANCE DAY)

- | | | |
|----------------------|---|-----------|
| 10.00 | Coffee and registration | OU Camden |
| 10.30 | Welcome | OU Camden |
| 10.40 - 12.40 | Session 1: Challenges Faced by Military Families | OU Camden |
| | Chair: Emma Bridges | |
| | Adrienne White (Australian National University): Families at war: glimpses of military families in the Athenian law courts | |
| | Sophie Raudnitz (OU): The singing of 'old songs': trauma and testimony in Euripides' Trojan Women and Begley's Wartime Lies | |
| | Owen Rees (MMU): Challenging a seamless transition: ideological incongruence between the classical Greek oikos and the military | |
| | Emma Long (Lancaster): How has the changing perception of the 'military family' affected the support available to partners, wives and husbands of military personnel? | |
| 12.40 - 13.30 | Lunch | OU Camden |
| 13.30 - 15.00 | Session 2: Daily Lives of Military Families | OU Camden |
| | Chair: Ursula Rothe | |
| | Jennifer Martinez Morales (Liverpool): A coward's oikos : female relatives of wartime 'tremblers' in ancient Sparta | |
| | Annie Truetzel (Princeton): A different 'Scipionic circle': a case study of a family in the Second Punic War | |
| | Sofie Waebens (Leuven): Soldiers and their families in Roman Egypt: legal issues and daily life | |
| 15.00 - 15.30 | Tea | OU Camden |
| 15.30 - 17.30 | Session 3: The Role of Soldiers' Wives | OU Camden |
| | Chair: Sophie Raudnitz | |
| | Alexander Hardwick (Cambridge): Women in battle? Reassessing the military wives of Troy | |
| | Helen Tank (Birmingham): Women's perspective on war: a view from Herodotus | |
| | Carol Atack (Oxford): Xenophon's military wives & the embodiment of virtue | |

	Emma Bridges (OU): The Homeric Penelope: a model 'military wife'?
18.30	Drinks reception sponsored by the Hellenic Centre	Hellenic Centre
19.15	Keynote Lecture (public event): Edith Hall (KCL): Warriors' wives in the Chicago 'hood: Rapping with Lysistrata in Spike Lee's Chi-Raq	Hellenic Centre
20.30	Conference Dinner: Opso Restaurant, Marylebone	10 Paddington St, W1U 5QL

SATURDAY 12TH NOVEMBER

9.00 - 10.00	Keynote Lecture: Penelope Allison (Leicester): Changing Attitudes to Women and Families inside Roman Military Bases	OU Camden
10.00 - 10.20	Coffee	OU Camden
10.20 - 12.20	Session 4: Socio-familial Networks Chair: Penelope Allison George Cupcea, Rada Varga (Babes-Bolyai University): An inquiry on the typology and structure of the military families in Roman Dacia Elizabeth Greene (University of Western Ontario): What's in a name? Tribal memory and acculturation on display in the Roman military diplomas Claire Millington (KCL): Testing the stones: inscriptions as a source for the households of Roman auxiliary commanders under the Principate Ornella Salati (PLATINUM Project, Naples): The soldiers' partners in Latin papyri and tablets from Egypt: a survey	OU Camden
12.20 - 13.20	Lunch	OU Camden
13.20 - 14.20	Session 5: Families a Long Way from Home Chair: Myles Lavan Niels Bargfeldt (Aarhus): Tagging along and blending in? The families of Roman marines stationed in Rome Ursula Rothe (OU): Military families in Pannonia	OU Camden
14.20 - 14.50	Tea	OU Camden
14.50 - 16.50	Session 6: Military Children and Orphanhood Chair: Carol Atack Helen Roche (Cambridge): Spartan pedagogy, German style? Prussian military education and the Spartan paradigm Fayah Haussker (Tel Aviv/OU Israel): Between innocence and precocity: battle heritage and orphanhood in Sophocles' Ajax Myles Lavan (St. Andrews): Roman auxiliaries' missing children Jeroen Wijnendaele (Ghent): 'Won't somebody please think of the children?' Marriage alliances in the western Roman military aristocracy (c. 400-470 CE)	OU Camden
16.50 - 17.00	Closing comments	OU Camden