

Birgitte Beck Pristed
Lektor
Institut for Kultur og Samfund - Rusland- og Balkanstudier, fag
Adresstype: Postadresse.
Jens Chr. Skous Vej 7
1467, 321
8000
Aarhus C
Danmark
E-mail: birgitte.pristed@cas.au.dk
Mobil: +4593522678
Telefon: +4587162763

Curriculum Vitae

Education

April 28, 2014:	University of Mainz, Faculty of Translation-, Language- and Cultural Studies Russian Department Ph.D. Candidate Dissertation: The New Russian Book. A Graphical Cultural History
Summer 2010:	Moscow State Linguistic University Visiting Ph.D.Candidate
December 8, 2006:	University of Copenhagen, Institute for Art and Cultural Studies M.A. in Comparative Literature with elective module in Russian
Summer 2005:	University of Konstanz, Germany, dep. of Literature / Slavistics, Exchange-student

Job experience

2018 - present	Aarhus University, School of Culture & Society, Russian Studies Associate professor
2015 – 2018:	Aarhus University, School of Culture & Society, Russian Studies Assistant professor
2006 –2008:	The Workers' Museum, Copenhagen Curator
2006:	The Workers' Museum, Copenhagen Project leader of Nordic-Baltic travelling exhibition
2002 – 2003:	The Maxim Gorky Institute of Literature, Moscow, Russia Danish teacher

Research areas

Russian culture and literature
Children's books
Soviet and post-Soviet eras
Visual arts, photo, film, architecture
Media and book history
Cultural transfer and transnational relations
Cultural heritage and museology

Research interests

My main research areas are Soviet and contemporary Russian visual and material culture, with a special focus on book, print and media history. My current projects focus on late Cold War 'book diplomacy', Soviet children's media, and children's books in the Russia-Ukraine War.